

Vasiliev A.A

The correspondence of A.A. Vasiliev from the archives of the Kondakov Institute Prague tells his relations between 1924-1952 with this institute. Hopefully it is a contribution to the understanding of post-and-pre-war history and the relations of the Byzantine in these.

April 4, 1926

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: department of history Medison, Wisconsin

Thanks from Georgiy Vladimirovich for sending the ad and the collection of Kondakov

May 31, 1926

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Medison, Wisconsin; Georgiy Vladimirovich

Thanks for the work "campaigns of the Byzantine Empire from the 13th century"

June 2, 1926

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Georgiy Vladimirovich

Message about coming to Prague to see a friend. Wishes for a good job in Athens to George Vladimirovich

June 30, 1930

From: Vasiliev A. A

To: Medison, Wisconsin

plans to travel for three months to California and Alaska to cross the Arctic Circle and relax. Gratitude for the presence in the collection in memory of N. I. Kondakov.

May 2, 1931

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author of the letter notifies that he will not be able to hold a lecture at the Kondakov Seminary, because he doesn't have time to prepare

April 2, 1931

From: Kondakov Seminary

To: Alexander Alexandrovich

Unreadable

October 24, 1931

From: Deputy Director; Secretary

To: Alexander Alexandrovich

thanks for sending a print of the article

November 29, 1931

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

please send the article no earlier than January

December 30, 1931

From: Deputy Chairman of the Institute

To: Alexander Alexandrovich

notice that the Board of the N. P. Kondakov Institute has elected Alexander Alexandrovich an honorary member of the Institute for scientific achievements in the field of Byzantine studies

October 29, 1931

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

gratitude for the title of honorary member of the Institute, the inability to make a membership fee for lack of funds

December 11, 1931

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

continuation of the last letter; the author explains that he did not refuse the title of election to honorary members, and doesn't have the means to pay the membership fee; sent a copy of the last pages to Paris; wishes a happy new year

January 15, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Madison Wisconsin; USA

thanks to the author for being elected as an honorary member; the article for the collection is ready and is being rewritten

January 26, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

notification that the author has sent an article "Harun-ibn-Yahya and his description of C-le"; wishes of good luck and happiness in the housewarming

March 2, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

sent correction with a request to make 4 corrections; the author of the letter asks under what conditions he can have separate impressions and how many

March 3, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author of the letter asks for amendments and additions to the Laurentian Chronicle, note 56, which refers to Apollonius of Tyana

October 15, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author of the letter asks to make more corrections to the Laurentian chronicle

October 15, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author of the letter expresses gratitude for sending prints of his article; does not send his own print to the library of the Kondakov Institute. Reports on the beautiful French edition of his «History of Byzantium»

October 19, 1932

From: Prague

To: Vasiliev A.A

thanks to Alexander Alexandrovich for his impressions and further participation in the next volumes of their Yearbook. Request to send an extra copy for the library of the Institute French edition " History of Byzantium"

November 13, 1932

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author of the letter informs that he does not have free copies of the French edition of his "History of Byzantium" Recommends contacting Gregory of Lozinsky for free volumes

January 29, 1933

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

thanks for the New Year's greetings; excellent result of the article " Harun-ibn-Yahya and his description of C-le"; at Christmas, the author went to New York; in connection with the crisis, it was decided to stop printing university publications at his university and reduce salaries

November 3, 1933

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author expresses his gratitude to the Institute for sending him two volumes:1) the second volume of the "Russian Icon" by Kondakov; 2) the sixth volume Seminarium Kondakovianum; regrets the death of Lossky; informs that from February to September he will be free for personal studies

Teil 2

April 26, 1934

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Hotel Raganand; Paris, France; Nikolay Petrovich

the author of the letter informs that he remains in Europe until September. He doesn't have a ready-made article for the yearbook. He wrote the book "Goths in the Crimea" in English.

November 16, 1934

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA

the author got to Madison after a rest, asks to write the name and middle name of Solovyov. He was very happy to meet future Russian scientists in the Slavic countries.

January 28, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Dmitriy Alexandrovich
the author reports that had a great new year and was in New York and Virginia, Newhavn, have seen Vernadsky and Rostovtsev.

May 4, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Nikolay Petrovich
the author of the letter is interested in the position of printing Seminarium Kondakovianum; tells about his other articles. In June, he leaves Madison for a year in New York to lecture at Columbia University. They are called the General course of Ancient History and the history of Byzantine civilization.

June 3, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Nikolay Petrovich
the author sends an article "on geographical anonymity", which was not written in any language other than German. He also gives a complete translation of the treatise "The Foundation of the Trebizond Empire". Reports that "Goths in the Crimea" will be published in the publications of the American Medieval Academy.

July 24, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: New York; Nikolay Petrovich

the author reports on the movements in New York, he will return to Madison in 1936. He creates 40 copyright prints during this period.

September 12, 1935

From: the Board of the Institute of Kondakov; chairman of the Management Board; Prague

To: Vasiliev A.A; New York

expression of gratitude to A. A. Vasiliev for his consent to assume the chairmanship of the board of the Institute, as well as in the development of archeology, Byzantine studies and nomadic studies.

September 17, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A;

To: Nikolay Petrovich; Virginia

the author sends the corrected proofreading of his work and informs the new address where to write letters

October 26, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

the author is looking forward to the rolled-up proofreading in 45 copies. He lectures in New York and is very happy.

November 5, 1935

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

the author makes corrections to the proofreading and once again reminds of the prints in the amount of 45 copies

January 19, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

the author congratulates all colleagues of the institute to the New year, in New Haven he saw G. V. Vernadsky, with whom he talked about the institute. The author is engaged in correcting the proofs of his English book "Goths in the Crimea". His article on the foundation of the Trebizond Empire will appear in the next issue.

March 5, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

The author doesn't write the obituary of Zlatarskiy, because there aren't enough materials. Planning a trip to France and Prague.

March 9, 1936

From: secretary of the institute

To: Vasiliev A.A

the secretary of the Institute solemnly announces that Vasiliev A. A. was elected chairman of the board of the Institute; all members of the Institute are happy.

April 2, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

the author expresses his gratitude for the new honorary title and understands that staying in America is impractical, his presence is necessary at the institute.

April 5, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

the author discusses the financial situation of the Kondakov Institute. He redacted the first correction of " Goths in the Crimea "

April 30, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Nikolay Petrovich; Prague

the author informs that his trip to Europe will not take place, as there will be a summer session. The financial situation of the institute is alarming. The Institute has acquired a very valuable honorary member in the person of an American. From June 6 to July 1, the author will be absent in New York.

May 16, 1936

From: Nikolay Petrovich; Prague

To: Vasiliev A.A

the author reports that 45 prints of Vasiliev, as well as prints of other articles, are being sent with a delay. The American about whom Vasiliev asked in his last letter is a major collector, the owner of the world's best collection of Coptic fabrics. The author will not be able to get to the Byzantine Congress in Italy for lack of time.

June 3, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Nikolay Petrovich; Prague

the author of the letter thanks for the impressions received, they are printed perfectly. He is very pleased with the new honorary member of the institute-an American. He reminds that he doesn't get to Europe in the summer.

December 5, 1936

From: Vasiliev A.A; New York

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich; Prague

The author reports that there are no hopes for moving and establishing the institute in America, and tries to find an American with financial resources who could help the publishing house of the institute. He promptly received 8 volumes of the Institute's publications. Thanks the institute's intention to dedicate the next volume to him, but is not happy about it. Recently, his English book "Goths in the Crimea" is published.

3

January 21, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Dmitriy Alexandrovich

The author of the letter thanks for the card he received, signed by all the members of the meeting. His colleagues are preparing a collection that will be dedicated to Vasiliev.

April 11, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Dmitriy Alexandrovich

The author says that his colleagues would like to keep information about his musical works in his biography for the 70th anniversary. They can also add information about printed works. He regrets that he did not tell Vernadsky about his dearest memory, a trip in 1906 to the 50th anniversary of the University of Melbourne. There he read his "famous" speech. The author says that the 70th anniversary is not a happy date, but a sad one, so he asks his colleagues not to worry about this event. He remembers his childhood and finishes his letter in a good mood.

May 6, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Dmitriy Alexandrovich

The author reports that he sent two photos for the institute and for the collection. In two weeks, he will send an article about the beginning of the Anglo-Saxon emigration to Byzantium. This summer, the author is going to come to Paris for two weeks.

May 15, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: 803 State Street Madison Wisconsin; USA; Dmitriy Alexandrovich

The author discusses the change of the new representative of the institute in America. Returns from Paris to America, and then from Madison to Guatemala.

May 22, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Madison; Nikolay Petrovich

The author is alarmed by the financial situation of the institute and its transfer to America in connection with the debt, this idea is not feasible, in his opinion.

June 28, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Madison; Nikolay Petrovich

The author tells about his future trip to Paris, in the summer he plans not to work , but to relax.

July 30, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A; Paris

To: Madison; Nikolay Petrovich

The author wants to visit his colleague Dmitry Petrovich in Prague, but since his trip to Paris was expensive, he can't do it. He asks if his presence in Prague is necessary. He reminds that he is going to America from Paris.

August 9, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A; Paris

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author thanks Dmitry Petrovich for paying for his trip to Prague. He asks to meet him at the station, because he is short-sighted.

August 17, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A;

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author thanks Dmitry Petrovich for his hospitality and delicious dishes, and also apologizes for his great appetite, as everything was delicious, and dumplings, and pickle, and mushrooms in sour cream. He hopes to see you again. Sends great greetings to the family of Dmitry Petrovich.

August 25, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author has returned to America and is going to Madison.

September 14, 1937

From: the Kondakov Institute

To: Alexander Alexandrovich Vasiliev

The Institute cordially congratulates Vasiliev on his 70th birthday. Despite the distance, he brings great benefits to the university with his work.

October 10, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nataliya Grigoryevna

The author thanks the entire university in the person of Natalia Grigorievna for congratulations on the 70th anniversary. A little regret for the wasted years that didn't go the way he wanted.

October 12, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author thanks the entire university for congratulations on the 70th anniversary. The institute is still unable to find rich members to pay off the debt.

November 5, 1937

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nataliya Grigoryevna

The author asks Natalia Grigorievna about her achievements in the Czech-Slovak ministries and institutions. He is ready to provide his help and assistance, if it is necessary.

February 3, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Efremovich

The author reports that in May he will give lectures in Paris on the topic of Byzantium and Ancient Russia. From Paris, at the end of June, he goes to New York, where he will also give lectures on “The Course of History of Ancient Greece” and “Byzantine civilization”.

February 14, 1938

From: Murko M.M

To: Vasiliev A.A

The author reports that the Slavic Institute wants the property of Kondakov, namely his library, to remain in Prague.

March 4, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author is grateful for the reprints of his article and for the invitation to attend the Gregoire report. Bolan still can't pay off the institute.

March 7, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author thanked for a very interesting article by A.V. Solovyov about the Goths in the Crimea.

May 14, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Efremovich

The author says that he will be able to see Nikolai Efremovich in the summer, he is very happy about this trip and looks forward to seeing Pechory and Izborsk under the guidance of Nikolai Efremovich.

May 14, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author thanks for the new published collection, makes corrections and corrections and asks to send more. There is not enough time for personal work due to the university routine. The author leaves New York for Scandinavia and Finland.

May 26, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Dmitriy Alexandrovich

The author thanks you for participation in his article, respects and misses him.

June 12, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Petrovich

The author informs Nikolai Petrovich that he is leaving Madison for 4 months.

November 9, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Nikolay Efremovich

The author has returned to Madison and is dealing with correspondence, individual prints, and books received during his 4-month absence. He often recalls their stay in Pechora and Izborsk.

November 30, 1938

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Georgiy Alexandrovich

The author sends Georgiy Alexandrovich to Belgrade a brief memoir about V. G. Vasilevsky. He can dispose of them at his own discretion.

January 7, 1939

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Georgiy Alexandrovich

The author temporarily does not work on articles, as he treats his eyes. Grégoire has visited him recently. It was decided to transfer the Kondakov Institute to America in New-Haven-Yale. The author of the letter knew nothing about it. In May, Vasiliev is going to give 6 lectures in Paris. Georgiy Alexandrovich manages to gradually move the library from Prague to Belgrade.

May 20, 1939

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Georgiy Alexandrovich

The author would like to thank Grigory Alexandrovich for sending a copy of his articles. They helped him a lot at his lectures in Paris, and he was able to convey the most interesting information to his numerous listeners.

October 9, 1940

From: Vasiliev A.A

To: Georgiy Alexandrovich

The author is very happy that "Byzantium" of Georgiy Alexandrovich has been published. The author is healthy and working on his autobiography, more than 400 sheets are already ready.

COPYRIGHT KONDAKOV INSTITUTE PRAGUE